Welcome to Windsor Fringe 2009

We hope you will find something to enjoy in our varied programme; we aim to please all tastes and ages with events spread all over town.

We are particularly proud of our New Drama Writing Award, now in its sixth year, which is gaining prominence and attracting writers from all over the world. In contrast we provide a showcase for local artists, who have come forward in impressive numbers to be part of our Artists Open House.

We rely on the support of our community and are pleased to have had a grant from the O2 Support our Community Fund towards equipment for the Drama Award.

We thank all our sponsors and the many people who give their time and energy.

Have fun.

ONLY HUMAN
(SERES QUERIDOS)
Spain/UK/Argentina/Portugal

2004/85 mins
Cert. 15

Directors: Teresa De Pelegri, Dominic Harari

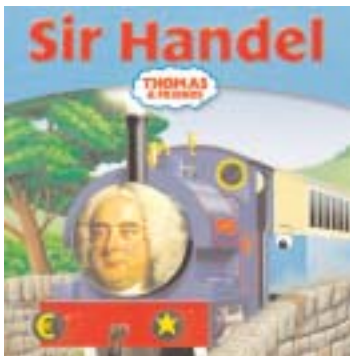

Leni and Rafi are in love; the kind of love that ignores politics and religion. Until, that is, Rafi meets Leni's family on one eventful Madrid evening and total pandemonium ensues. Only Human is an energetic, colourful farce that attempts to figure out why people find it so hard to live in harmony.

P IS FOR PERFORMER

If A is for agent and B is for backstage, is E for ego?

Why is 9852 the answer to everything?

Who said "Nevertheless... my wife will play Ophelia", and why?

From Broadway to panto, by way of divas, dames and childhood, Sondheim and Shakespeare, this solo show mines the rich seam of theatrical lore, combining anecdote, verse, autobiography and half truths with the odd (very odd) insight to produce a scintillating evening (well, it lasts about an hour) that will delight, inform and above all, entertain.

Michael Heywood made his professional debut in Trevor Peacock's musical "Class K". Other theatre work includes, "Another Country", Alan Bennett's "Enjoy", Fabian in "Twelfth Night", Alexei in "The Tchaikovsky Play" and "Christie in Love", as well as pantomime and revue. He created the role of Tom in Richard Gallagher's MEN nominated drama "French Paste" and has toured the UK in Harry Denford's hit comedy "Club Class". Films include "The Boy from Pinner", directed by Terence Davis, and Jonathan Bloch's surreal musical adventure "Major Hanna".

ART

EXHIBITIONS & ARTISTS OPEN HOUSE

This year there are many new studios to visit as part of the Artists Open House event covering three weekends. It is always surprising to find there are so many dedicated artists in Windsor working in a wide range of materials. There is bound to be something for everyone, entry is free and much work is for sale. You will be warmly welcomed at all the houses listed here and if you are lucky you may also find reviving refreshment to spur you on to the next address. As parking is so limited in the town, leave the car at home and enjoy walking the trail.

Jade Palace Chinese Restaurant, 81 St Leonards Road, Windsor SL4 1HX. (Map no. 7)

A CHINESE EXPERIENCE:

Banquet and Beautiful Instruments

Our performers are two professional Chinese instrumentalists from London's 'China Arts' ensemble. Members of this musical group have played for the openings of V&A Exhibitions, for prestigious diplomatic occasions in the Capital and similar international celebrations.

Celebrate with the Fringe and be transported to the Orient with sounds and tastes from the Middle Kingdom. Food from the kitchens of Windsor's Jade Palace will evoke the flavours of Beijing's Forbidden Palace. Recreate with us the banquets of Imperial times when Emperors and Mandarins were entertained by the exquisite balance of fine instruments played by highly trained musicians.

" THE SIXTH YEAR "

"MR. PERCY AND KING LEAR"

Written by Kathleen Kiley and directed by Mark Holliday

A story of two elderly men reduced to living in a second-rate nursing home. It illustrates the great difference that our attitudes about life & ourselves make in creating the world we inhabit.

"FALLING APART"

Written by Peter Harrison and directed by Barry McCormick

A young couple, leaving their solicitor's office after making arrangements for their clearly amicable divorce, enter the lift as a couple for what they believe is the last time - but is it?

"THE DEFINITE ARTICLE"

Written by Richard Perrins and directed by Francis Watson

Katrina visits her Lithuanian grandfather, whom she idolises, every week. She wants to find out about his past, partly for her A level History project but also to get to know him better. She soon realises that Gramps is not quite the man she thought he was.
